

therefore, altogether lost his old skin.

A curious story comes from Los Angeles, where in the Metropolitan League competition the Los Angeles and Beverly Hills club tied for first place. There was no play-off, because Beverly Hills proposed to add to their team some members of the now defunct Hollywood club, and to this Los Angeles would not agree. We suppose there were some "talkies."

---