

California. The Inglewood Chess Club whitewashed the San Pedro group 9-0 . . . A match between the North American Aviation Chess Club and the Exposition Park Club ended in a 3-3 deadlock . . . Jim Cross, state champion, and Hyman Gordon, Los Angeles titlist, are contesting a match. With wins counting two points and draws one, the first to tally ten points will be the winner. Cross took an early lead in the series . . . J. Kahn won the Class B title of the Los Feliz Chess Club by defeating M. Kahl in a play-off game. The two had tied with $7\frac{1}{2}$ - $2\frac{1}{2}$ in an earlier round-robin tournament. Dr. Healy and Bogen shared third with 7-3 . . . G. Steven took first place in the Santa Monica Recreation Department held at Muscle Beach (a great place for a chess event). He had $8\frac{1}{2}$ - $2\frac{1}{2}$ ahead of A. Spiller and P. Wrangell, each with 7-4 . . .