C. D. 's VIEWS

OUR SHOWALTER TEAM DID THE UNEXPECTED when it upset the Evans team of San Bruno. There are some who felt we upset Colle, too, but I rated that match a toss up, the lopsided score being the unexpected part of that match. As it goes it looks like nobody will upset Botvinnik, the only team we have lost to so far.

Since we have been so busy with team matches, three weeks in a row, it seems all but two members have forgotten to turn in their nomination ballots. If possible, I'd like to see the rest of them come in even if facsimiles have to be made.

Next week, our team meets the Keres Group here at the Precita Valley Chess Club. Let's get ready to play our best, men.

It isn't long until the sixth annual Sonoma Valley of the Moon Chess Festival will be taking place. I'm in hopes this club can attend 100%. There's even a prize for the club that can do this. The Colle Chess Club has always done it. So where it says, "Name of Club" on your application be sure to fill in "Precita Valley Chess Club".
