Merry Christmas and

Happy New Year,.....

....to each and everyone of you. We certainly hope you receive this issue before Christmas, but with mail load etc. we may just miss it - sorry. Too busy ourselves, you know. Have a wonderful holiday period, everyone, and a very happy and prosperous New Year. That includes at least a 200-point increase in your rating in 1969. The new year will bring many tournaments and events to which you can look forward to, so be sure you make it a great chessical year!

GRAND TEAM MATCHES ARE COMIN'

Won't be long now. A couple of months to start of the all-time greatest So. Calif. event - the annual Team Matches involving every club and 40 teams or so. Are you ready? Then you must come or be sure a club representative turns up at the....

....next meeting of the So. Calif. Chess League, to be held on January 3, Friday eve., at 8 p.m. at the Atlas Chess Club, 3351 W. 43rd, Los Angeles. At this meeting Officers for 1969 will be elected and installed, entries for the team matches accepted and action on several proposals for 1969 programs for the League will be voted on. Election of the 1969 recipient of the Hall of Fame award will also get under way. Clubs should be prepared to pay club dues and team fees at this time.

Be there!

LAZOS UPSET WINNER IN AMERICAN OPEN

By

Andrew KEMPNER, Tour. Dir.

An unheralded Los Angeles Master topped a record field of 160 in the Fourth Annual American Open, held at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Monica Nov. 28-Dec 1.

James LAZOS (2316) posted the fine score of 7½ in the 8-rd event. His bid for the title hung in the balance of flags as a fierce time-pressure scramble developed in his last-round game with John BLACKSTONE (2275), L.A. County Champion.

BLACKSTONE, with the black pieces, had secured the slightly more aggressive game, but his usually accurate judgment betrayed him in an open position rife with combinations. LAZOS thus succeeded Dr. Anthony SAIDY (who flew in from Douglaston, New York, where he is writing a theoretical book on chess) as American Open Champion, and pocketed the $600 first prize. His single draw was with John VARIS (1874) in round 2.

LAZOS, now 31, emerged years ago as a prodigy from the late Herman STEINER's chess stable. His last tournament victory prior to this event was the 1965 Rocky Mountain Open. It is well-known that Jim prefers slow, non-committal openings (one of his novelties is the amorphous 1.P-K3) and has a penchant for finely-drawn positional strategies. His end-game technique is highly respected by the coffee-house set.

SAIDY (2522), highest rated in the field, finished out of the money along with Tibor WEINBERGER (2444), and was clearly off form. Perhaps he should not have played after being bedded for 3 days with flu right up to round 1. Tony had clear advantages in his games with George SAIDI (2163) and Norman LESSING (2174) but drew. Then it fell to Larry REMLINGER (2250) of Long Beach to put Tony away for keeps in the money round.

REMLINGER prefers a solid game with a tactical punch at the end. Feinting threats on the kingside, he forced SAIDY to passively blockade his own pieces, then penetrated with a fine queen move which resulted in a passed pawn. REMLINGER's 7-1 score was good enough to tie for 2-3 with 20-yr. old Walter Shaun BROWNE (2436) of Brooklyn.

BROWNE, nicked for a point in Rd 4 by Harry MAYER (2040) when, as Walter put it, he "went crazy" in an overwhelming position, acted like Desperate Desmond throughout the tournament. His flag was always on the brink, the result of endless ruminations in the opening, after which he sometimes made the worst move available. In his game with William BRAGG (2024) he had to make 28 moves in 2 minutes. This time-pressure syndrome has become characteristic of BROWNE's play, but must seriously depress his scores over the long haul. Nevertheless, his ferocious drive to win pulled him even with REMLINGER and earned him $237.50 in prize money.

At 6½ came BLACKSTONE, Ernest Shields Open winner Charles HENIN of Sherman Oaks and Earl PRUNER of Los Angeles. WEINBERGER finished with 6 points - tied with some players he traditionally leaves in the dust. The American Open seems to be his hard luck tournament, for he has never won a major prize in 4 years. WEINBERGER can play exceptional chess when he respects his opponent, but tends to relax when his adversary is from the unwashed masses. For him to have lost positions against lower-rated players is normal but invariably this Hungarian Houdini brings off a swindle or finesse that reverses the expected result. Not so this time. To Marlie THOMASON (1895) and Charles DITLOW (1728) go the honors of nailing shut Tibor's coffin when their chances developed.

Other prize winners included Expert: 1-9: P. RHEE, N. LESSING, R. SCHUTT, V. PAFNUTIEFF, J. SCHMITT, P. EBERLEIN, G. SCHAIN, A. SUHOBECK and M. SIERO. Class A: K. STANI, J. CALLAWAY, 13 tied for 3rd. Class B: R. GARDNER; 2-4, V. FAGIN, E. FAELTON, S. SCHWARTS. Class C: K. MORRISEY, 2-3 R. ERVIN, D. HILL. D: J. SKRATULIA. U/r: K. KAHYAI (Iran). Woman: D. BRAGG. Senior: LESSING, SIERO, PAFNUTIEFF. U 18: B. ANTMAN. U14: D. BERRY.

*GALLO played an extra game W147 in this round to avoid a bye for 147.

AMERICAN OPEN POLKA DOTS

....55 out of 160 players were Juniors, probably a national record for Junior attendance in the Triple Crown events.....Ken JONES, hard-working promoter from Nevada came in from Reno along with Dr. Paul SECORD. The National Open debacle has not affected his good humor and his side of the story seems reasonable and tragic.....

WEINBERGER's good nature and sportsmanship never wavered. He is as stoic in defeat as in victory, and always generous in praise of his opponents.....MAYER played the best chess of the tournament up to round 7. BLACKSTONE's flag fell on move 35, but MAYER could not present a complete score to the Director, and the game resumed with BLACKSTONE prevailing. (Adoption of the new Bluebook rules regarding time-forfeits would have served justice here - Ed.)Vladimir PAFNUTIEFF won the best game prize.....Jim TARJAN of Sherman OAKS, the U.S.A.'s second-ranking Junior behind BROWNE, was Best Game Judge. After examining BROWNE's 116 move win over BRAGG, he ventured the opinion that perhaps two prizes be awarded - one to BRAGG for the first 58 moves, the other to BROWNE for the remaining 58. TARJAN's services have not been requested for next year.....

NEXT IN SANTA MONICA

A historic tournament on Jan 10-12, six rds Swiss, starting Friday Jan 10 at 8 p.m. (Reg. 6-7.30 p.m.) It's the at which, for the first time ever, the League's new CALPOINT system will be adopted. We described this system in our last issue; top finishers in the tourney will begin gathering CALPOINTS toward their qualification into the Calif. State Championship in 1969.

Guaranteed prize fund, $500. First, $200; second, $100. Top expert, A, B, C & u/r $60, $50, $50 and $40 respectively. Trophies all over. Entry fee, $10; juniors under 18, $5. Rounds on Fri 8 p.m., Sat 9, 2 and 7; Sun. 10 and 2.30. 50/2 Fri and Sun, 40/1½ Sat. Directed by A. KEMPNER. Get your CALPOINTS early in the year!

AND....ANOTHER FIRST! On Sunday, Feb. 2, the Santa Monica Chess Club presents the

SANTA MONICA WINTER TORNADO

A one-day event of four rounds, starting at 10.a.m. Time limit, 40 in 80 min. USCF-rated! Entry fee, $5, juniors $2.50. There will be four sections, Open, A, B, C and u/r. Prize fund depends on number of entries. A $60 first in the Open is guaranteed.

TORNADOES have been popular for some time in the Midwest and back east, but have not hit the West yet. Here's your opportunity to finish a tournament in one day - get your hat and coat and earmuffs now for the WINTER TORNADO!

SHORTIES

Starting with our next issue, THE RACHESS will publish the full story and games of the TARJAN-BROWNE MATCH which ended in a 3-3 tie. A great event.....Mike LEIDNER and F. MARSHALL tied for first in the NAR VA LEY Chess Club's championship tournament with 5-1. Hal MILNER won the Rapid Transit Warm-up preceding the event.....The 2nd Annual Lyons Share Tourney at El Segundo was won by K. KAHYAI of Iran, with 4½-½ drawing only with J. STOLPE. Table and news next issue....

LOST IN SPACE

By Donald COTTEN

The RIVERSIDE OPEN started like the television series of "Lost In Space" with the expected tournament site, Bordwell Park, still under construction. Fortunately 27 space ships were able to find their way to Terra at the Riverside Municipal Auditorium. There they were joined by Fleet Commander Donald COTTEN who entered the race to make an even number of contestants. Walter BROWNE commanded the fastest spaceship travelling all the way to Andromeda Galaxy with 5½ points. Master spaceman Joh BLACKSTONE kept pace with him most of the way, but experienced difficulties trying to outmaneuver junior spaceman Roger MYERS. The experts in the fleet had a terrible time keeping their engines going and only local expert Leo RATERMAN finished among the first twelve. Localites Lee CORBIN, and Donald OCTTEN, driving Class A speedsters, achieved a fast lift-off, but soon crashed twice, and paused for some Sirius repairs before racing off to grab their class prize. Eugene FOGARTY's Class C cruiser started with a rush till he abandoned the race, allowing Roy ERVIN to pass him for the C honors.
