

FOR GEORGE KOLTANOWSKI THE ENDOWMENT FUND IS A WAY TO LOOK 10 MOVES AHEAD.

Great Givers

In the game of chess, George Koltanowski knows how to win. He looks many moves ahead . . . and predicts the result of a particular strategy.

It should come as no surprise that this international Chess Master and noted chess columnist takes the same approach in life. That's why he established a pooled income fund through the Jewish Community Endowment Fund.

"My wife and I are modest people," he says. "A pooled income fund gives us two major advantages. First, it allows us to receive income from our contribution during our lifetime. Second, it makes sure that our support for Jewish institutions continues—even after we're no longer here."

Now in his 80s, Mr. Koltanowski's reasons for giving to the pooled income fund reflect his youthful experiences in the shadow of Nazi Germany.

"I remember how Jewish organizations in Antwerp helped Jews in need during World War Two. This always stuck in my mind. I am giving to help build a future I can believe in."

Of course, you don't have to be a chess champion to contribute to the Jewish Community Endowment Fund. All you need to know is that you can build a stronger Jewish Community for the future . . . by looking a few moves ahead.

Just like George Koltanowski.
