Address All Communications, Solutions, Etc., to CHESS EDITOR, SAN FRANCISCO CALL.

"Veni, Vidi, Vici"—Marshall

Frank J. Marshall is no longer a stranger to San Francisco chess players. If perchance he should return to the coast next year he will be greeted by friends who, previous to his four-day visit as the guest of the Mechanics' Institute, were of necessity his admirers only.

The American champion arrived here last Tuesday morning. Although somewhat fatigued by the railroad journey from Portland, Marshall gave a brilliant exhibition of his skill at simultaneous play at the institute Tuesday evening, when he met a strong field of 11 players. The master won 12, 6 were drawn, while H. Smith alone succeeded in vanquishing the visitor. The performance attracted about 300 spectators.

Wednesday afternoon Marshall played two exhibition games simultaneously against Prof. A. W. Ryder and F. W. Gruer in consultation at board No. 1, while at board No. 2 he was opposed by A. B. Stamer and A. J. Fink. The allies at board No. 1, defending against Marshall's pet Danish attack, held the expert to a well played 49 move draw. Messrs. Stamer and Fink, with the white pieces, were met by Marshall's favorite, Petroff. This game was also declared drawn, although the master had probably a winning advantage.

Thursday evening Marshall repeated his simultaneous performance, playing against 18 opponents, winning 17, with 5 drawn and 6 lost.

Friday the visitor entertained with some rapid transit chess at 5 and 10 seconds per move. A. B. Stamer succeeded in putting one over on the champion during the 5 second seance.

Next week a more extended resumption of the American champion's visit and a selection of games will be printed.

Lasker made a "scoop" for the New York Evening Post with the following most interesting item. But, then, the champion is himself one of the principal figures in the matter, and as he is chess editor of the Post, there was no chance:

BERLIN. June 1.—Rubinstein recently wrote to say that he yields in the matter of the hours of play for our chess championship match. Thus, a match between us is likely to take place, since, in all other points discussed by us last year an agreement had been reached. The one disagreement arose from his insistence on fixing the beginning of the game at 11 a. m., whereas I pleaded for a later hour. For the present nothing more definite can be stated, though I believe that, in all likelihood, the match, which should prove great interest, will be played some time next year.

If Lasker is destined to lose the chess championship crown, won from Steinitz away back in 1892, the Russian master, A. K. Rubinstein, is a worthy successor. And it would occasion no surprise if the brilliant Russian should finally defeat Lasker. In the opinion of many he is the logical opponent in a world's championship match. Of course, Capablanca is a dangerous opponent, and many think he would take Lasker's measure in a set match. But Rubinstein's record fairly entitles him to the honor of contesting for the great prize. At all events, if the Russian is victorious and succeeds to the crown, probably the Cuban would be his first opponent. But this is anticipating. Chess players the world over will eagerly await the beginning of hostilities. Will Rubinstein share the fate of Maesel, Tarrasch, Schlechter, Steinitz, Zukertort and Janowski? Or will we have a new world's chess champion?

We have been asked to reprint the rules governing the Northern California vs. Southern California Correspondence Match. Those bearing on actual play are:

3. Players withdrawing from match shall forfeit their unfinished game or games.

4. The time limit between receiving and posting replies shall not exceed forty-eight (48) hours.

5. The winner of each game (or in case of a draw, the first player) shall forward in five (5) days the score of the game to his team captain.

6. A move once dispatched, can not be recalled. If a legal move, it must be abided by. If illegal or impossible, king moves.

7. The referee shall decide all disputes arising, and his decision shall be final.

8. Contestants are placed STRICTLY ON THEIR HONOR not to consult during the match.

Captain for North—George Hallwagen,

57 Foal street, San Francisco.

Captain for South—O. E. Frazier, 426

North Burlington avenue, Los Angeles.

Referee—Dr. Henry Epstein, San Rafael.

GAME DEPARTMENT

Following is a selection of Marshall games. No. 66 is the game mentioned last week, which Marshall won from Lasker in the 1900 Paris tourney. No. 67 is from the recent match with Janowski (won by Marshall; 6 won, 2 lost, 2 drawn). No. 68 was played in one of the cable matches between Great Britain and the United States:
