FRESNO In the Fresno Chess Club's annual meeting December 16, E.H. Suhr was elected president; Bob Baker, vice president; Del Bevill, secretary; and Mark Phetteplace, treasurer. Baker was awarded a trophy as the club's champion in 1957.

At the same meeting Phil Smith gave a simultaneous exhibition, winning 13 games and losing to Ernest Cook and Otto Haschke. An unusual feature was that 14 games opened with 1.P-Q4; the only exception was a Caro-Kann played by Baker.

STOCKTON At its annual December business meeting the Stockton Chess Club elected officers for 1958: president - Al Radinsky; treasurer - L. Isaac; league representative - H. Sanders; recorder - H. Keibler; secretary - R. Leigh; team captain - A. Lutz; tournament director - A.C. Saxon. The club will hold its annual tournament in January.

Don't bother looking for page 2 - there isn't any. If you would like to have a page 2 or page 3 or 4, just send in some news and games to put on it.

a merry Christmas and a happy New Year to all good chess players
