"Cafe' Figaro".....Chess may be found in progress under many conditions and places of the unusual, but the mod scene in captive thought introduced by the Cafe' Figaro is yet to be beat. Can you imagine your moves being guided by classical music while driving your opponents minds, into spasmonic chaos. Can you imagine listening to Tchaikovsky and trying to play like Chigorin. Yes, classical background for classical blunders. Mr. Tom Ziegler the owner of the Cafe' went all the way: Grandmaster Isaac Kashdan directed a prize fund of $1,000 and the Coffee House surroundings tu-boot. Eat, Drink and expresso was the comforting fill before, during and after one's game. Accomplished was the strongest open tourney in the history of the West Coast. On hand were eight (8) Masters and twenty-four (24) Experts. Average rating was approaching 2000. Mr. Ziegler announced a prize fund of $2000 will be the booty six months from now in the second Cafe' Figaro. Could we call him the re-incarnated Z of old Calif., the Robin Hood of chess peasants?
