Chess

By George Koltanowski

HOW WELL DO YOU PL AY?

66

Black to move. glance that If you o an see at a glance get the advantage, good man you are strong a say you are a grapid player.

If it takes you are still good and minute you need in shame. If you then you you ten seconds, you and even if you take leed not hide your her 2 mine.
in shame.
way then you
chess-blindness or much more practicel
much more practicel
solution to morrow.
tution to yester head cannot find your either suffer need much, If curious, yesterday's problem

1.QxP. CANDIDATES SEMI-FINALS: Sp. ski, USSR (who beat Geller 5½-2 will play the winner of the Lars Portisch match (Larsen leading 17al, USSR (who beat Gligorich, 3½) meets Korchnoi, USSR (who beat Reshevsky 5½-2½). Spassky the over-all favorite. A recent to the page of the votes amon Spas-/2-21/2) Larsen 51/2 (who rite. A re the votes pol amongst the over a save him 85% and the save him 85% and the save him 85% and the save him s The Oakland Open with the Oakland Open waster players. The Oakland Open with the Oakland Open with the Oakland Open with the Oakland Oscala Piese in all divisions and USCF and CFNC rated sections. A 20 trophies will be given in the ferent sections. Raymond Ng direct and will be assisted by McCollough. George Koltanowski attend. Richard Shorman will die Junior divisions. A book with mames will be published rames will be given in the formation will be assisted by the published rames will be will be published rames will be Tourna June has Also dif Will Ray attend. The published best games will be published after the event! Entry fee is $10 for after the event! Entry fee is $10 for after the USCF rated event. Seven dollars for the CFNC rated A, B, or C sections. Junior division is $3. The event takes place at the Oakland YMCA, 2101 Telegraph Avenue. First round starts at 12:00 (noon). Bring board and men, and chess clock if you have one. You can send your entry to Oakland Chess Club, Richard Lee, Treasurer, P.O. Box 1622, Oakland, Teasurer, P.O. Box 1622, Oakland, Jungary beat direct

Yugoslavia in a double-round n 10½-9½. Moscow beat Prague 8½. On board one David R ble-round match; eat Prague 131/2-David Bronstein, with V. Hort. At a beat East Ger-81/2. On board one Moscow, drew twice Minsk, White Russia many 221/2-171/2. CAPTAIN JOHN Ger-Russia

HUDSON, U.S. Ridgely Schneiboth play s at the Oper hess Master Ridgely simultaneous exhider Will Open Air Chess n July 4! bitions at San Bruno and friends val at San family and Bring on and play val starts d in San friends, picnic and win prizes. Festival s at Beckner Field in ng board and men. chess and wi at 10 a.m. a Bruno. Bring