

African Chess

Be Part Of History - Play "African Chess"!!

The African Chess Federation proudly presents an African Chess Tournament

Sponsored by Mc Donald's Restaurants

This is the first time in modern history that African Chess has been played.

OFFICIAL RULES FOR AFRICAN CHESS:

1. Black moves first, not white.
2. The king and queen trade places. (The king is the most powerful piece on the board.) The black king is placed on the black square and the white king is placed on the white square.
3. You checkmate the queen, not the king.
4. The rest of the rules stay the same.

When: December 10 - 11, 1983
Entry Fee: $10.00 (This is the lowest fee ever given for this type of money and prizes. All prizes guaranteed.)
Sections: Open and Amateur.
