

CALLING ALL CHESS FANS

A new chess club will open its doors to all interested chess fans on Thursday, March 15, 1956. It is the Precita Valley Chess Club at the Precita Valley Community Center, 534 Precita Avenue, San Francisco, Calif. Jim Reynolds, ex-secretary of CENC and ex-editor of "Chess In Action" and "Thursday Knights" will be the club director. Membership to this club will be a small fee of $3.00 per year, which will include membership to the Precita Valley Community Center and entitle you to the Precita Valley Chess Herald, a weekly chess news bulletin. For the opening night and the few weeks following, the club will hold a ladder tournament while members get acquainted and in approximately five week's time will have a club championship tourney to determine the club's champion. Also, the club will hold classes for those wishing to learn the game or for those wishing to improve their game. How can you join? It's easy--, just come and see us opening night, Thursday, March 15th, bring along your own sets and boards, supply us with your name, address, and phone number and $3.00 and you are in. The club will meet every Thursday thereafter from 7 p.m. until 11 p.m. All players will be rated.
