Oct 22, 1964/ Dear Prof. Divinski, I beg your pardon for taking this long in answering your very complimentary letter--I was away on a trip.
My story "The 64-Square Madhouse" has been reprinted now in the Paperback collection of my stories A Pail Of Air. Your request to reprint it should go to Betty Ballantine, Ballantine Books, 101 Fifth Ave., New York 3, New York.
Certainly wish I could have seen the Interzonal-- my knowledge of chess tournaments comes chiefly from reading and from participating in small ones locally. Winning the Santa Monica Open back in '58 is my biggest achievement to date. I'd be honored to be put on your free list of subscribers--Chess Chat is a fine magazine, judging from one copy, with beautifully clear diagrams.
Again, your pardon for my delay, Sincerely,

Ditty Leibel
