

SPOTLITE NEWS

3449 Cahuenga Blvd. West / Hollywood 28, California / Hollywood 6-5365

July 3, 1963

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: From: DAVID PARRY

"WORLD'S BIGGEST PRIZE - CHESS TOURNAMENT OPENS" - - 59 Seconds Silent

VIDEO:	TIME:	AUDIO:
L. S. GROUP PLAYERS AROUND TROPHY	4	Tigran Petrosian, new world chess champion met seven other top players at the Ambassador
M. S. ABOVE	2.5	Hotel last night (Tuesday, July 2nd) as Jerry
L. S. PHOTOG's & SPECTATORS	1.5	Spann, vice president of the World Chess
M. S. SPANN & DORN AT MIKE	5.5	Federation and Warren M. Dorn, Chairman of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors
L. S. TO M. S. PETROSIAN SITS PAN TO APPLAUSE	7	officially opened the world's richest chess tournament. The Piatigorsky Cup International
L. S. OTHER PLAYERS SHAKE	3	Chess tournament offers $10,000 in cash
M. C. U. SAMUEL RESHNEVSKY (USA) SITS DOWN	4	prizes. Most others offer from three to five thousand dollars. Five countries are repre-
C. U. CHESS BOARD & SIGNAL	3	sented by the competing grandmasters who
C. U. FIRST MOVE PAN TO PETROSIAN	5	will play fourteen rounds in this first of a series of biennial matches. Only two other
M. C. U. PAN, PAGE SETS CLOCKS	6.5	grandmaster tournaments have been held in the United States: one in New York in 1924,
C. U. MRS. PIATIGORSKY	4.5	another in Dallas in 1957. The founder of the tournament, Mrs. Gregor Piatigorsky was on
C. U. GREGOR PIATIGORSKY	3	hand with her husband, the famed cellist.
L. S. PAN OF ENTIRE ROOM	9.5	Petrosian is the first world's champion to visit this country since 1932 when Russian Grandmaster Alexander Alekhine played in Pasadena. The tournament will continue at the Ambassador thru most of July.

TOTAL FILM TIME:

59 SECONDS SILENT

LA TV
63 S 730