

NEWSMEN'S KOLTANOWSKI CHESS DOUBLE CHALLENGE

2 Ways to Win 2

Presented by
WEIBEL CHAMPAGNE VINEYARDS

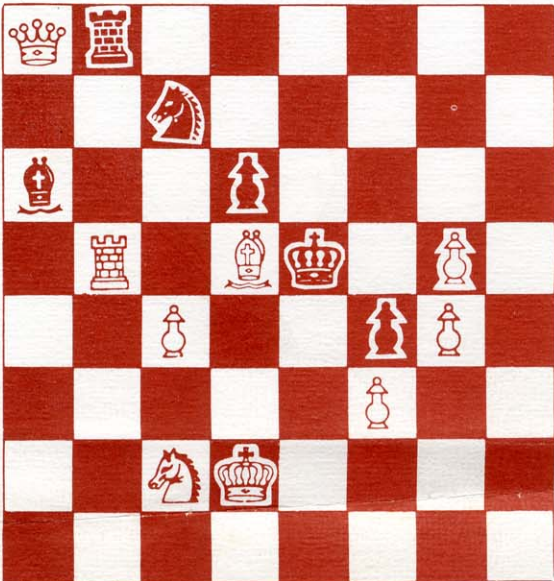

Checkmate the champion: Announcing the First Annual Chess Contest for Knights of the Fourth Estate! Here's your chance to challenge international chess master George Koltanowski - for fun, for prizes! Entrants must be working members of press, radio or TV. It's as simple as that.

BY MAIL!

MAIL BY SEPT. 3, 1968

Twenty winners! Solve the problem below and mail by Sept. 3, 1968, to Weibel Champagne Vineyards, 250 Q World Trade Center, San Francisco, California 94111. The first 20 correct answers picked on the day of the challenge (Sept. 14) will win a personally autographed chess book by George Koltanowski. Entrants do not have to be present to win.

Entrants who desire to receive the answer to the problem following judging may receive it, together with the "Modernized Laws of Chess" booklet by sending a self-addressed envelope to "Press Chess Contest" at the above address.

PROBLEM: White to play and mate in two moves

MY SOLUTION:

Name _____

Home Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

My Employer is _____

IN PERSON!

SATURDAY, SEPT. 14, 1968

CHESS DAY AT THE VINEYARDS

Koltanowski will meet all Fourth Estaters in simultaneous competition on Saturday, Sept. 14, 1968, at the Weibel Champagne Vineyards, Mission Boulevard (California Highway #21) at Stanford Ave., Mission San Jose, California, beginning at one o'clock p.m.

Any player who defeats Koltanowski wins a case of Weibel Extra Dry Champagne! Any player who ties him will win a case of choice Weibel dinner wines! (Competition players must be 21 years of age to win the prize; prizes of like value will be presented to winners under 21.)

Come join us for an afternoon of food, wine, and fun! Bring the family!

() Yes, I'll be present for the chess challenge. Put my name down for the wine picnic. The total number of people in my party: _____

Name _____

Street Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Telephone (Area Code _____) _____

Reservations must be received at Weibel Champagne Vineyards, 250 Q World Trade Center, San Francisco, California 94111 by Tuesday, Sept. 10.