Dear Sir:

I noticed in Isaac Kashdan's chess column in the Sunday Times that Mr. Reshevsky will be playing a group of forty juniors in a simultaneous chess exhibition. I would consider it a great honor if I could play him. My name is ELIOT OSTROW and my address is at the heading of this letter. I am 17 years old and I attend Beverly Hills High School. At Beverly High I play second board and I am President of the Chess Club there.

Yours truly,

Eliot Ostrow
