PROBLEM NO. 1

White to move and win.
Solution next week.

This interesting problem was composed by Stark in 1958.

California will be held at the Berkeley YMCA, 2001 Allston Way. The tournament will be a five round Swiss, divided into Expert A, B and C divisions. The entry fee is $4 ($7 for non-members of CFNC) before Jan. 10, 1966, and $5 ($8 for non-members) after that date. Mail your entry to Mrs. Virginia McGinley, 2673 Chelsea Drive, Oakland, California 94611, specifying the division in which you wish to play.

The Concord Chess Club has recently joined the ranks of chess clubs in the Eastbay. This club has initiated a "junior program" of free lectures for high school students by Roy McCollough, chess player and youth organizer. Weekly meetings of the club are held on Fridays at the Concord Recreation Center, 2974 Salvia. Prospective club members and interested juniors should contact Jerry Long by mail at 4080 Poplar Avenue, Concord, or by telephone, 682-3497, evenings.

The Oakland Chess Club will not hold meetings on Dec. 24 and 31, because of holidays. Regular meetings will be resumed Jan. 7.

Contributions of material are welcome and become the property of the columnists; editing rights are reserved. Send problems and games to T. Anderson and R. Ng, and all other items and correspondence to M. Morrison and E. Meyers, P.O. Box 1622, Oakland, 94604.

STAMP CLUB . . .

The first of a two-part series of stamps from Burunda issued to publicize the Winter Olympics IX in Innsbruck last winter is offered to members of the Tribune Stamp Club this week.
