

Herman Steiner of New York gave a monster simultaneous exhibition at the Los Angeles Athletic Club on January 7. He played 80 boards with four players at each table. His score was excellent—70 wins, 7 losses, and 3 draws. Steiner remained in Los Angeles after the Pasadena Congress last August. According to the latest reports he finds chess in a very healthy, thriving state there, and means to stay indefinitely.