The Southern California Chess

League this season will have three sections; H. D. Rader of San Gabriel is the secretary of the new Section C. The schedule runs from December 14 to February 17, with five teams entered. Seven teams are entered in the major league (Section A) and the same number in the minor league (Section B.)

Frederick D. Yates, many times

British champion, passed away recently. He specialized in the Ruy Lopez and was nearly unbeatable in it. The following game is probably one of the last examples of this opening left by him. From the 1932 British championship tourney, when Yates was deposed as title-holder by the young East Indian,

Sultan Khan.
